

12 Awesome ways to make

MONEY AS A KID!

1 Feeding your neighbours pets

Feeding pets while their owners are away could be a great way to earn some extra money and you could always be on hand to supervise!

2 Start a plant watering service

As with feeding neighbours pets, watering gardens in warm weather and houseplants year round is another good way to start the kids off earning some pocket-money.

3 Babysitting

For older kids, the classic side hustle of babysitting is a brilliant way to get some pretty decent cash in

4 Grocery shopping

Many of our neighbours, especially the elderly ones, find it really hard to get to the shops. Helping out once in a while is brilliant, but lots of people will pay for a more regular arrangement

5 House chores

Talk to them about the things they think they might be able to help you with. Could your teen use the iron well? Smaller ones put the laundry on?

6 Fiverr

Fiverr has a minimum age requirement of only 13, making it perfect for younger teens (as well as anyone else!) to make some money side hustling

7 Etsy

If the parent owns an Etsy account, the kid can sell on it with the parents permission. What does that mean? It means your creative kids can craft away and then sell their products for hard cash on craft lovers marketplace Etsy

Etsy

8 Swagbucks

Can kids take surveys? Mostly you have to be over the age of 18 but Swagbucks lets you take surveys from age 13 with their parents permission and on their accounts

9 Selling items

Reselling is something most kids can do at any age, with a little guidance from parents!

10 i-say.com

Owned by Ipsos, one of the oldest market research firms in the world, i-say.com is a brilliant, totally legitimate site that kids aged 14 and over can join

11 Selling photography

Got a good eye for taking photos? Did you know you can sell your photos online for a decent amount of cash? There are loads of reasons people want stock photos... marketeers, bloggers and designers are just a few of the people who might use stock photos

12 Slice the Pie

Aimed at teenagers who love listening to music, Slice the Pie pays you for your reviews on music, and also fashion, accessories and commercials before they're even released!
